This weekly bulletin informs students, parents, and staff about internships, academic programs, jobs, leadership & community service initiatives, and other student opportunities in a variety of fields. Please carefully note deadlines, age requirements, and other pre-requisites for participation.

For ease of use, these newsletters are organized by different categories, such as Academic Programs, Business Internships & Jobs, STEM Opportunities, Community Service, and so on.

Please note that in order to save space, many sections contain links to general lists of related opportunities- such as for Stem programs, Community Service, College Prep free programs, and more - be sure to click on any links that interest you.

2025-2026 School Year Programs: Please note that many sections include some programs for the upcoming school year, so be sure to consider them and to apply before the relevant deadlines, which may be during the summer.

For students still seeking summer opportunities, Community Service is one area in which a substantial number of options remain available. Check that section: for example, all students may help disadvantaged younger students at P.S. 188 on the lower East Side of Manhattan (application deadline: June 15th!), and all can enjoy the summer outdoors by working with one of the many NYC Park programs available in the PARKS/NATURE section.

Some other highlights from this week's edition:

COMMUNITY SERVICE: The historic ship Lilac is moored on the Hudson River, two blocks north of Stuyvesant, and it welcomes student volunteers to help with a variety of tasks – weekend shifts are mandatory.

And various summer tutoring options may be accessed at the link found at the beginning of this section.

COLLEGE PREP: Several free or low-cost summer programs (virtual and /or in-person) are available; some are focused on rising seniors, and some accept all students.

GOVERNMENT/LEADERSHIP/HISTORY: The Forest Hills Summer Youth

Ambassador Program is open to students from all grades – participants develop leadership & collaboration skills as they meet twice a week to develop programs that help the community.

PARKS/NATURE: Rooted in the City is a 2025-2026 school year program that taught students about the incredible variety of plant life in the city. It pays a stipend to participants who complete the program, and is open to all grades.

STEM: Columbia Medical School's Scientific Enrichment Summer Program is a free one-month virtual introduction to current cancer research, and includes some college admissions prep activities – all students may apply.

Questions, suggestions, and information about other opportunities are always welcome and appreciated, and may be sent to Internship/Opportunity Coordinator Harvey Blumm at: hblumm@stuy.edu - we will share your helpful information with the Stuy community!

Updated: The TomorrowToday Experience Directory: A new interactive resource for students and parents!

TomorrowToday is a digital companion to the weekly Student Opportunities Bulletin empowers students to more easily explore, find, and engage with the many diverse opportunities that are available in a more interactive way.

How Should Students Use It?

Students can access the directory via our weekly digital bulletin or at the link below. Simply browse through the curated listings, find experiences that interest you, and take the next steps to participate on the provider's website. The user-friendly interface makes it easy to filter and search for specific opportunities.

We encourage all students to make the most of TomorrowToday's Experience Directory. Dive in, explore, and discover your career journey:

The New York City Department of Housing Development & Preservation Summer Communications Internship

“This summer, we’re looking for motivated, curious students to join our small but mighty Communications team at HPD — the city agency responsible for affordable housing. Our interns get to do meaningful work that supports real-world housing policy and programs, while also building a strong foundation in public service communications. The internship is designed as a well-rounded experience that touches on all aspects of what we do — social media, press and storytelling, public engagement, and event planning for senior leadership. Interns gain hands-on experience drafting content, helping shape communications strategies, supporting public events, and contributing to the narrative around how the City is tackling its housing challenges.

Interns will walk away with tangible portfolio work and writing samples, access to professional development resources, networking opportunities with senior staff across the agency and city government, and a deeper understanding of how large public institutions work and how to navigate them.”

New: Rooted in the City Internship

“You’ll get your hands in the soil, learn to ID local plants and trees (yes, even the ones growing through sidewalk cracks), and discover how fungi, dirt, and weeds have medicinal purposes. Through different cultural stories and traditions, you’ll explore how the plants we find in our city have been used for healing, ceremony, and connection across generations. Along the way, you’ll deepen your knowledge of traditional plant wisdom, express your learning through creative mediums, and start to see the city—and yourself—differently. Together, we’ll weave our experiences into a youth-led public event that blends nature, culture, and creativity: ‘Moving Through our Senses with the Plant World.’” A stipend of up to $550 will be provided for this program.

Working Papers: Some jobs, internships, and programs do require students 14-17 years old to obtain working papers (official name: employment certificates). The necessary application form may be obtained from Mr. Myles Sebastien (who can explain the procedure and answer any questions) in the Stuyvesant Guidance Office (Room 236) between 8:00am – 3:30pm.

If you are selected for or enroll in any of the above opportunities, please inform Mr. Blumm ASAP at: hblumm@stuy.edu

Whichever extra-curricular program, internship, or community service activity a student may participate in, they should be sure to ask their supervisor/coordinator to write a letter of appreciation before it concludes – it is sometimes very difficult to obtain this later on. And the more personal & detailed the letter, the better. A copy should then be submitted to your counselor.

Please feel free to contact Harvey Blumm at hblumm@stuy.edu with any questions or feedback on any items in this message, or with any suggestions or concerns you may have. And always feel free to share any information about opportunities that may be of interest to our parents, teachers, or students.
