12. OPPORTUNITY LISTS AND RESOURCES

13. SCHOLARSHIPS

This weekly bulletin informs students, parents, and staff about internships, academic programs, jobs, leadership & community service initiatives, and other student opportunities in a variety of fields. Please carefully note deadlines, age requirements, and other pre-requisites for participation.

For ease of use, these newsletters are organized by different categories, such as Academic Programs, Business Internships & Jobs, STEM Opportunities, Community Service, and so on.

These various opportunities utilize different formats. Some are in-person, some remote, and some will involve a hybrid arrangement. Check each program for their specific format and schedule. Students should consider applying to any that match their interests and talents.

Please note that in order to save space, many sections contain links to general lists of related opportunities- such as for Stem programs, Community Service, College Prep free programs, and more - be sure to click on any links that interest you.

Here are several programs of note in this week's bulletin from various sections; some have rapidly-approaching deadlines:

ACADEMICS: The 2025-2026 school year Columbia Science Honors program, which offers Saturday STEM enrichment instruction, is now accepting applications from current 9th, 10th, and 11th grade students – financial aid is available for eligible students. And the Yale Ethics Society High School Fellowship program welcomes all interested students to their two-session virtual spring program on Ethics & Philosophy

EVENTS: There is an after-school Postsecondary Programs Fair in Brooklyn scheduled for 3/12, with 60+ post-high school options participating, including colleges (including CUNY & SUNY schools), career, and other post-high school options participating- current juniors especially are encouraged to attend.

All students may attend the in-person Community Board 14 Youth Programs Summer Fair in Brooklyn after school on March 12th – the focus is on programs for that borough, but many citywide options will be represented as well.

BUSINESS: The generous Atlas Scholarship/Paid Summer Internship program for under-resourced and/or under-represented students interested in business majors & careers is accepting applications until March 3rd. And the Museum of Finance Academy offers a free virtual five-session program in personal finance to current juniors & seniors – several of the top participants may receive $500 - $1,000 scholarships.

LEADERSHIP/GOVERNMENT/LAW:

Paid summer internships with the Office of the Mayor are available to students 16 and older – the application deadline is March 30th. Several City Council candidates have opened applications for their spring political campaigns.

And a batch of other excellent legal, social justice, and leadership opportunities have fast-approaching early March deadlines.

MUSEUMS/ART:

The paid Gilder Lehrman Summer History Internships are open to all students interested in history. And there is a variety of spring and summer options available to students from the Met, MOMA, the NY Historical Society, the Museum of Arts & Design, and more!

PARKS : Brooklyn Bridge Park's TIDES spring term program is open to all students with an interest in nature and the environment – the application deadline is March 7th.

STEM : The Manhattan/Staten Island (for all Stuy students 17 and older) and the Bronx (for those 17 and older who live in the Bronx) Summer Health Internship Programs are six-week medical-focused opportunities – the first application deadline is March 14th.

THEATER/MUSIC/WRITING: The free Summer Arts Institute at Frank Sinatra High School in Queens offers students of all grades a variety of arts and performance programs – the application & virtual audition deadline is March 2nd !

Questions, suggestions, and information about other opportunities are always welcome and appreciated, and may be sent to Internship/Opportunity Coordinator Harvey Blumm at: hblumm@stuy.edu - we will share your helpful information with the Stuy community!

STEM Opportunities:

New: Columbia University Student Group Science Research Symposium

“Columbia’s Modulus Research Education Club is hosting a spring symposium in which students who have previously conducted research can present to and engage in conversation and debate with students looking to get involved in research. There are three main components of this symposium: asynchronous project submissions, presentations, and debate. In the asynchronous symposium round, students who have previously conducted research can submit a short research paper by March 23, 2025. Then, some students will be selected to present their work at a live presentation round. Students who are eager to get involved in research should attend the presentation round to learn more! The final component is an optional journal/club debate where students will read a paper and discuss its findings and broader implications.”

Eligible: All students

Dates: April 6 (10:00am - 1:30pm)

Location: Virtual

Cost: Free

Application Deadline: March 23 (if submitting a paper)

Girls Who Code Summer Programs

“Girls Who Code will offer two free programs this summer: the virtual Summer Immersion Program and Pathways. The Summer Immersion Program is a two-week experience to learn game design in live virtual classrooms while making friends and gaining practical college and career advice from industry leaders.

Pathways is a six-week opportunity to explore big topics in tech independently. Learn to code through hands-on real-world projects in game design, cybersecurity, data science, web development, and artificial intelligence, make meaningful friendships as you become part of our lifelong alumni network, and learn about tech careers by connecting with engineers and participating in skill-building workshops. No computer science experience is required.”

Eligible: All students who identify as a woman or non-binary

NYU Tandon School of Engineering ARISE & Other Summer Pre-College Programs

NYU Tandon offers a wide variety of STEM-focused programs for high school students. The competitive free programs for local students provide unique opportunities for in-depth STEM studies and range from Computer Science for Cyber Security (CS4CS), Innovation, Entrepreneurship and the Science of Smart Cities (ieSoSc). The fee-based programs are Design, Invent & Innovate (DII), Immersive Summer Interacting with Technology and Engineering (I-SITE), Machine Learning (ML), Computer Engineering for Good (CE4G), Programs in Digital Design and Media (UX and XR), and Automation, Robotics, Coding (SPARC).

Eligible: All students

Dates: Various

Location: MetroTech Center in Brooklyn

Application Deadline: April 15 (CS4CS & ieSoSC), April 21 (ML & SPARC), May 16 (DII, CE4G, I-SITE, and UX and XR)

MIT Beaver Works Spring ‘Yes You Can’ Virtual Classes

“The BWSI Saturday Program is an educational initiative to engage high school students in STEM through immersive, project-based learning experiences. Held on Saturdays in the Spring and Fall, these programs allow students to explore cutting-edge technologies (Robotics, Programming, AI) and develop critical skills that prepare them for advanced STEM studies and careers.

Program Highlights:

- The program is completely free and is perfect for students who are curious and excited to dive into robotics, engineering, and programming!
- Robotics, coding, and artificial intelligence courses
- Engineering challenges and design competitions
- Guest speakers and networking opportunities with STEM professionals
- Exposure to advanced technologies such as drones, autonomous vehicles, and cybersecurity

Eligible: Current freshmen and sophomores

Dates: March 8 – April 26 (Saturdays)

Location: Virtual

Deadline Approaching: Columbia University SBI Synthetic Biology Workshop

“Each year, Columbia SBI hosts a free workshop series, in which students learn the critical techniques used within synthetic biology, the theoretical basis of these techniques and synthetic biology as a whole, along with the frontiers of current research in the field. Building on last semester’s successful series, this semester we are diving deeper into specialty topics that highlight the latest advancements in the field.

This four-part workshop series will take place on the following dates:

03/23/25 – Applications of CRISPR Technology

03/30/25 – Regenerative Medicine

04/06/25 – Computational Biology

04/13/25 – Applications of Synthetic Biology in Industry

Lessons will be delivered live through the Systems Biology Initiative's Zoom account on Sundays from 2:00-4:00pm. Please note that in order to participate in the workshop series, students will need to make a free zoom account.

The Spring 2025 application for this program can be accessed through this google form. The deadline for the application is Sunday, March 9th, 2025. Please note that successful registration requires the completion of the application and the email submission of the forms linked in the application, which are also due on March 9th.

New: Youth Communication Spring Writing Contest

“Since taking office, the Trump Administration has effected change at a dizzying pace—cutting the funding of many government agencies and programs; pursuing undocumented people; affecting trans and nonbinary people ; making diversity, equity, and inclusion efforts against the law; upending the U.S.’s relationships with other countries; and more. For this spring’s contest, we’d like writers to reflect on how their life has changed since Trump took office, if it has. Please be specific and detailed. Winning entries will be published on our website and winners will receive prizes of $150 (first place); $75 (second place); or $50 (third place).”

Eligible: All students

Application Deadline: March 31

Asian Pacific American Heritage Scholarship

“The Asian Pacific American (APA) Legacy Public Service Announcement (PSA) scholarship is a celebration of APA Heritage Month. The scholarship ($250 top prize) is open to any high school or college student of APA descent in the United States. What does being APA mean to you? The intention of the Heritage Series’ APA Legacy PSA scholarship is to allow APAs to create fun and interesting 60-90 second video vignettes. The videos must convey what it means to you to be an APA. Why do you feel it's important to recognize and celebrate your cultural heritage? Videos can be about the customs or traditions you practice, the types of foods you eat, or what you do with your family and friends. They can be clever, silly and/or serious. It's totally up to you, however, the contestant must share a little bit about themselves too. You must use the #APALegacy2023 hashtag when posting.”

Eligible: All students with AAPI background

Working Papers: Some jobs, internships, and programs do require students 14-17 years old to obtain working papers (official name: employment certificates). The necessary application form may be obtained from Mr. Myles Sebastien (who can explain the procedure and answer any questions) in the Stuyvesant Guidance Office (Room 236) between 8:00am – 3:30pm.

If you are selected for or enroll in any of the above opportunities, please inform Mr. Blumm ASAP at: hblumm@stuy.edu

Whichever extra-curricular program, internship, or community service activity a student may participate in, they should be sure to ask their supervisor/coordinator to write a letter of appreciation before it concludes – it is sometimes very difficult to obtain this later on. And the more personal & detailed the letter, the better. A copy should then be submitted to your counselor.

Please feel free to contact Harvey Blumm at hblumm@stuy.edu with any questions or feedback on any items in this message, or with any suggestions or concerns you may have. And always feel free to share any information about opportunities that may be of interest to our parents, teachers, or students.
